This is a letter from our CEOs

- Lisa Giacomelli

and

- Ros Blakley

Hello, we hope you are well.

We want to say

- happy holidays

and

- thank you for trusting us to support you.

We are making sure we have the right people in our teams to give you the best services.

We needed a new Chief Operating Officer for our Disability Services.

A Chief Operating Officer makes sure our services

- are running how they should
- respect your rights and needs.

Introducing our new Chief Operating Officer

We are happy to tell you that Damion Lipman is our new Chief Operating Officer.

Damion

- worked at Key Assets Australia, another disability and children's services organisation
- worked at the National Disability Insurance Agency

and

- wants us all to work together to make sure our services support you to live life your way.

A message from Damion

"I look forward to listening to your stories, understanding your needs and working together to build a future where everyone is supported to live a life of choice, dignity and connection."

We also needed a new Chief Risk Officer.

A Chief Risk Officer

- works to make sure our services are safe
- looks after the health and safety of our teams
- checks that we are following the government's rules.

Introducing our new Chief Risk Officer

We are happy to tell you that Simon Gullery is our new Chief Risk Officer.

Simon has been in charge of our risk team for the last couple of months.

Simon

- has worked in health care, aged care, banks and other well-known organisations
- has a lot of experience helping organisations stay safe and follow the rules
- plans carefully so that all of his team members know what to do.

We look forward to working with you for another incredible year in 2025.

Wishing you happy holidays and a fantastic New Year!

Warm regards,

Lisa Giacomelli

and

Ros Blakley
